

THEIR SECOND HONEYMOON.

Louis Windmuller and Wife to Renew Happy Days at Capital.

In celebration of their golden wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Louis Windmuller, of Woodside, Long Island, are to live their young married life over and are coming on their second honeymoon to Washington to see President Taft. When they were married, two years before the outbreak of the civil war, they came on their honeymoon to see the President of the United States, then James Buchanan. They are expected to arrive in Washington tomorrow.

Mr. Windmuller is 64 years of age and well-to-do. He is the father of three children and has three grandchildren, all of whom will dine with him and his wife in New York before they leave for this city. Besides being active in charitable work in New York city, he is the president of the Maiden Lane Savings Bank and senior member of the firm of Windmuller and Roelker. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce of New York city, and was one of the founders of the German-American Insurance Company. He took the initiative in establishing the Title Guaranty and Trust Company, was a founder of the reform club and treasurer of the Legal Aid Society.

ADVOCATES SOCCER FOOTBALL.

Caledonian Club Invites Commissioners to Attend Game.

With a view to creating interest in the game of soccer football, Hugh Reid, manager of the Caledonian Club, which organization's membership consists exclusively of Scotchmen, has forwarded to the District commissioners a letter inviting them to attend a game of soccer, to be played Thanksgiving day between his club and the Sons of St. John, of Baltimore, at Union League park, Fifteenth and H streets northeast.

The commissioners have declined the invitation, expressing regret at having other duties to perform on that day.
