

OFF FOR FOREIGN SHORES.

Among the passengers of the North German Lloyd steamship Ems, which sails to-day for Bremen, are Louis Windmüller and family, Director G. Amberg, of the Thalia Theatre; the Hon. A. R. R. Butler, Mme. de Struve, wife of the Russian Minister at Washington; Dr. Joseph Blum, Louis R. Ehrich, Dr. B. Hess, George Strawbridge, A. G. Goodall, H. E. Dickson, and Alexander Gebhart.

Among the passengers who will sail to-day on the steamship St. Laurent, of the French line, for Havre, are the Count and Countess d'Auxy, the Count de Cumbres Altas, the Viscount and M. de Thury, Miss Antoinette Ogden, the Rev. John Carroll, and Mrs. Thomas Melville.